NO ONE SHALL BE LEFT BEHIND INITIATIVE

Biodiversity for Food, Nutrition and Energy Security for 3000 Households in Meghalaya and Nagaland, North East India

JULY 2020 UPDATES
SUMMARY

In the month of July 2020 the main focus was on training and workshops for the Community Facilitators (CF) on the different subject areas of the project components. These exercises were conducted via online zoom conferences and telephonic calls because of movement restrictions caused by COVID-19. The activities were then executed by the CFs in their own communities.

1. Mask distribution
2. Do's and Don'ts
3. Guidelines provided by the Government
4. Immunity boosting foods
5. Health and Hygiene
6. Cleanliness sanitation
Communities realise the importance of kitchen gardens, especially post the outbreak where dependency on markets eventually declined. We have seen an increase in the number of kitchen gardens started by the community members at the household level. Many youths in the communities have also activated community kitchen gardens in their villages.

Objectives:
1. Reduce dependence on external inputs like chemical fertilizers
2. Introduce a simple and quick composting method by using local resources
3. Improving soil health

Initiative for reviving and promoting traditional seeds for food security and food sovereignty.

Key areas:
1. Preservation of local seeds
2. Seed-keeping methods
3. Individual/household seed-keeping
4. Community seed banks
WASH CAMPAIGN

Prior to CFs executing the campaigns in their own communities, they received training (telephonic) by NESFAS.

- Improve access to water and sanitation services particularly for the poor and marginalized.
- Inculcate the habit of hand-washing regularly with soap.
- Facilitate the concept of WASH, safe drinking water and waste segregation.

CLEANLINESS IS NOT AN ACT BUT A HABIT.

The Youth and Senglongkmie (Women’s Association) of Nohron community (East Khasi Hills) organized a session on WASH campaign by cleaning the river and water source where they use to wash clothes.
